Notes for MARY LOUISE CAIN:

Found your Wimberly genealogy site on the internet. It is very good. My wife was A Wimberly. Her father was Robert Taylor Wimberly who married Ollie Savage. I always knew there was a Linchfield and thought he was the father of James Claborne Wimberly. Never found any information to prove it. You have the wife of "Clabe" (James Claborne Wimberly was known by that name) as Mary Elizabeth Cain. It was Mary Louise Cain. I have seen her family bible and she has her name as Louise. Her father was George Washington Cain and her mother was Rebbecca Stone. Which family line are you from? You will have to excuse the typing. I have to type with a pencil held in my hand. My eighty-odd years have taken their toll. My address---T L Coppinger; 74 Red Oak Street; McMinnville, TN 37110

Notes for MARY ALICE HEARD:

The child referred to as Maggie Heard on the Jim Heard-Margaret Wimberly family page was my grandmother. Her birth name was actually Mary Alice Herd. As an adult she was commonly referred to as Mae. She married Herbert T. Merriman. The only Maggie, was the name commonly used for my great grandmother, Margaret Wimberly.

I remember often visiting with my Uncle Buddy (Horace) and my Uncle Nig (Arsey) Herd. I have fond memories of them all gathering on the mountain to make a little music. Wonderful summer nights were filled with the ring of their violin, guitar and old upright piano. Oh...how lucky I was.

All three children of James Heard and Margaret Wimberly are buried at the old Philadelphia Cemetery located in Grundy County, TN.
