Joe D. Stanley Dies in Auto Crash

Insurance Man Crashed Into Highway Bridge

Auto Swerved After Hitting Freshly Poured Concrete

Joe D. Stanley, 909 South Buchanan St., owner of the Marion Insurance Agency in the Bank of Marion Building, was killed in an automobile accident three miles west of West Vienna at 4:30 p.m. Friday. The Marion business man was returning to Marion from Anna when the automobile in which he was riding alone plunged into a section of freshly poured concrete paving and careened into a bridge abutment. He was pinned between the wreckage of the automobile and the concrete abutment and killed almost instantly. It was more than an hour before the body could be extricated from the wreckage. A wrecker was used to remove the demolished automobile before the body could be freed.

The body was taken to the Murrie funeral home at Vienna and then removed to the Mitchell funeral home in Marion. An inquest was scheduled at the Murrie funeral home by the Johnson county coroner at 8 p.m. Saturday. Other motorists arriving on the scene soon after the accident differed as to whether the newly poured concrete patch in the pavement was marked by a barricade prior to the tragedy. Occupant of one car following the Marion man's automobile said he saw no barricade. Another who arrived a few minutes later reported seeing a barricade standing undamaged on the highway after the accident.

Deceased was a native of Marion where he was born Feb. 4, 1909, the son of Grant and Lou Ann Newlin Stanley. He was married June 25, 1935 at Red Bud to Miss Lillian Lindsey who survives with one daughter, Elaine, at home.

Also surviving are five sisters, Mrs. Richard (Cora) Crooks, Mrs. Oscar (Esther) Gibson, and Mrs. Frank (Afton) Soper, all of Chicago, Mrs. Henry (Leona) Sullins, and Mrs. Gene (Helen) Chicon, all of Marion, and five brothers, Clell and Charles Stanley of Marion, Robert L. and Fred Stanley, both of Olney, and Dolph Stanley, coach at Beloit University, Beloit, Wis. He was a member of the First Baptist Church and Marion Elks Lodge No. 800.

A graduate of Marion High School, he attended Southern Illinois University and was graduated from the University of Illinois. A talented violinist in his school and college days, he taught music in Goreville high school before entering the insurance business in Marion.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at Mitchell funeral home by Rev. T. W. Nelson. Burial in New Rose Hill cemetery. The body lies in state at Mitchell funeral home where the casket will be closed before the service, and will not be re-opened.
