Generation No. 1

1. TRISTRAM BETHEA<sup>1</sup> THOMAS was born March 05, 1787 in Cumberland River, near Nashville, TN, and died July 16, 1845. He married MARY HILL BROWN June 21, 1821. She was born February 07, 1800.

Notes for TRISTRAM BETHEA THOMAS:

Colonel Tristram B. Thomas, was born on the Cumberland River, near Nashville, Tennessee, in 1787, and was a conspicuous figure in the life of the Mississippi Valley. In the War of 1812 he was a captain and later a colonel in the American forces, and participated in the battle of New Orleans. Later, he was commissioned to construct a military road from New Orleans to Nashville, and as a reward for this service received a grant to an entire township of land near the Mississippi River. However, this land was lost through lack of proper attention. From History of Louisiana, Chambers, Vol. 2. Page 366.

5. LUCY ADELINE<sup>2</sup> THOMAS (TRISTRAM BETHEA<sup>1</sup>) was born September 27, 1839 in Williamsburg, Smith Co, MS, and died August 23, 1926 in Shreveport, Caddo Parish, LA. She married CHARLES PERRY WIMBERLY July 07, 1856 in Louisiana, son of WILLIAM WIMBERLY and LUCY LAWSON. He was born January 10, 1832 in Columbus, Twiggs Co, GA, and died January 20, 1911 in Red River Parish, LA.

Notes for CHARLES PERRY WIMBERLY:

Charles Perry Wimberly was about five years old when he moved to Louisiana from George with his parents.

When the Civil War came on, Charles Perry Wimberly joined the Confederate troops under the command of General Taylor and took part in many of the battles fought in his home state. He saw General Moulin shot from his horse at the battle of Mansfield April 18, 1864. He was a corporal, and in all his active service was once slightly wounded.

Charles and Lucy made their home on Lake Bistineau, LA near Shreveport but later moved to the Red River Parish area in Louisiana.

Upon Charles' return from the Civil War (he had been gone for three years), he had asthma so bad the move was made because of the drier climate. His daughter, Lucy, said the area was something like the sand hills of Nebraska.

The new home was built on a hill which was called Fullers Hill. The state of Louisiana now has a fire lookout station there because it is a high spot for the entire area. C.P. Wimberly made this area his home for a lifetime.

Notes for DR. LOWRY CHARLES WIMBERLY:

Lowry Charles Wimberly was listed in the Who's Who in America in 1942-1943. Also 1950-1951. He was a professor at the University of Nebraska and was the University's leading literary light in the 1940's.

His home in Lincoln might as well have been haunted. It did not change, interior or exterior, for 40 to 50 years. Dark Brown outside, hedged in, and dark within, booklined, and furniture falling apart.

Lowry was strange, awesome, eccentric, and brilliant enough for someone to write, "The Ghost of Lowry Wimberly" several years after his death. It was published in the Prairie Schooner. Lowry was not religious but he looked a lot like his minister brothers, Ware and Hal, except he had amazing eyes, which were light smoky grey-blue.

Notes for BOBBY RAY WIMBERLY:

On that note, my father is in banking now. He has been for about 20 years, but he loves to teach classes at junior colleges on the side. He got his CPA certification about 10-15 years back. Right now he is CEO of a little tiny bank in Sicily Island, LA. He also has a tax preparing business with a branch in Sicily Island, and a branch in Ferriday, LA. He will be retiring in a few years, and I think he and my mom, Kaye, want to move somewhere that he can teach full time. My mother works for the US Army Corps of Engineers in the administration department. (Submitted by April Leigh Wimberly, <april092776@hotmail.com>; 08/20/1999).

Notes for APRIL LEIGH WIMBERLY:

April Leigh Wimberly is getting married in December, 1999. She is working on her master's degree at LSU.

I do have one sister-Barbara Susanne Wimberly. She is 19, and is about to begin her sophomore year at LSU in Baton Rouge. She is following in my dad's footsteps of accounting. On that note, my father is in banking now. He has been for about 20 years, but he loves to teach classes at junior colleges on the side. He got his CPA certification about 10-15 years back. Right now he is CEO of a little tiny bank in Sicily Island, LA. He also has a tax preparing business with a branch in Sicily Island, and a branch in Ferriday, LA. He will be retiring in a few years, and I think he and my mom, Kaye, want to move somewhere that he can teach full time. My mother works for the US Army Corps of Engineers in the administration department.

I am marrying James (Byron) Garrity, Jr. in December. His uncle also sent us a Garrity coat of arms to use on the program. Byron is an RN specializing in psychiatrics at Baton Rouge General Medical Center. I will finish with my Master's in Speech Pathology from LSU in May 2000.

I am so glad that you were able to locate the lineage in Vera's book. It may have been put out before I was born (?). Let me know if you have any other questions! (Submitted by April Leigh Wimberly; <april092776@hotmail.com>; 08/19/1999)
